Spoke's the Hub's annual WINTER FOLLIES is an informal performance marathon that features group and solo work by performing artists of all ages and genres. This year, it will be presented both live and online February 4-6, 2022.

Performers are invited to show a brand new work-in-progress, something older from your repertory or maybe even something improvisational? STH welcomes work that is wildly experimental as well as work that comes out of a well-honed tradition. Whatever you choose to present, however, think minimal (read "zero") additional set-up and/or strike time. Your 5 minutes must include walking on, performing, and then clearing off. Everything else is fair game...

At the end of each show, the audience votes for the artist or group that they would like to see a whole evening production of next year. The "People's Choice" grand prize winner at the end of the weekend will receive 50 hours of free rehearsal space and a full weekend production at the "new" Gowanus Arts Annex in the Fall of 2022. (Additionally, many Winter Follies artists are often invited to perform at other Spoke gigs in the Spring, including the annual Local Produce Festival.)
