"Falling in Dance" -Deeper into the world of dance.

As individuals, we all seek to express ourselves in a world where connection can be lost easily. Dance offers us an ability to engage and connect with those around us by understanding each other on another level; neither through words, nor through actions, but through simple art that is from deep inside us.

In collaboration with the dance community of NY & NJ, i KADA Dance seeks to spread positive energy and provide a chance to society for arts and dance. Thus, the creation of a festival where anyone can showcase their ability whether they are new to the scene, emerging, or established.
