NYC Location will be released to selected auditionees by January 28

Versatility is key when it comes to Gotham Dance Theater (GDT). We specialize in contemporary, street jazz, and dance theater. Seeking 1-2 strong, versatile dancers for our upcoming 2022 season.

Under the direction of Marc Nuñez, GDT company members learn new choreography every season and re-stage company repertory. GDT performances include, but are not limited to: evening length stage production, outdoor festivals, community events, and dance films.

We advise that every prospective dancer become familiar with the company via our website: <https://www.gothamdancetheater.com/> or via Instagram @GothamDanceTheater.

Company members are paid for rehearsals and performances. Additional stipends for choreography and performance opportunities are available within and outside of the company.
