Our annual Resident Artist Program offers support and resources for a selected NYC-based, movement-based artist to explore their creative process. This year's program will host a 150-hour studio residency and culminates in a 3-evening, in-person performance run in our theater. The Resident Artist is curated through an open application process, with the final selection chosen in collaboration with a rotating panel of peer artists. This program aims to support the artistic process and provide space and time to put practice into action.

The program includes:

150 hours of fully subsidized rehearsal space to be used in any of our studios lighting design by our in-house designers technical and production resources + support marketing resources + support

(12) hours of technical rehearsal a 3-evening paid performance run in our theater box office management and ticketing support on-site prop and equipment storage

$500 stipend
