Sylvia Chiang

The CrossCurrent Dance Festival is a celebration of the vibrancy and diversity of the Asian American dance scene in the New York metropolitan area. Produced by Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company and presented by Flushing Town Hall, the festival aims to foster creative contemporary dance choreography in the Asian American Community. The festival will increase the visibility of Asian and Asian American dance, foster cross-cultural dialog and provide a more equitable context to discuss dance and its role in the NY/NJ dance communities.

The festival, in its 8th season, will be presented on the mainstage of Flushing Town Hall on April 10, 2022 @ 2PM.

In the upcoming expanded season, Nai-Ni Chen is looking for 4-6 choreographers to be presented by Flushing Town Hall. The performance may also include one of Nai-Ni Chen's work. Selections are made by a panel organized by the Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS
ONLINE APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 14, 2022

Online application form HERE

If your work is not yet complete at the time of application, please submit a representative sample AND a link to a previous, completed work.

Selection committee must view your work for at least 5 minutes.

Please include time from the start of your video in your application (cue instructions) if you do not want the panel to watch from the beginning.

Your piece must be under 12 minutes and will not be presented with more than 3 light cues, in addition to lights up in the beginning and lights out at the end. No audio cues except on in the beginning and off at the end. No sets.

All applicants must be based in the NY/NJ area and at least 20 years of age with professional dance training background.

All applications will be viewed by an artistic panel led by Artistic Director Nai-Ni Chen.

Up to six choreographers will be selected to be in the festival.

Selection will be notified by March 21, 2022.

FINAL SELECTED CHOREOGRAPHERS RECEIVE:

Fee: $150 - Solo/Duet; $250 - Trio/Quad; $400 - More than 4 dancers
