BIG NEWS! Dance Gap Year is sponsoring THE NEXT 8 SUBMISSIONS to Dare to Dance in Public Film Festival!

DARE TO DANCE IN PUBLIC FILM FESTIVAL (D2D) IS DEDICATED TO THE CONCEPT OF DEMOCRATIZING DANCE, PERFORMING IT IN PUBLIC PLACES, AND SHARING IT ON FILM.

D2D is devoted to the international genre of screen dance. We are committed to promoting dance that happens in the public realm & alternative sites outside of studios and off traditional stages... dance that explores place and space, engages an unsuspecting public, and intersects with film.

D2D presents films that explore dance as an urgent, irrational, universal language, and transform our preconceptions of what it is to be human.

Whether it's in parking lots, super market aisles, train stations, or on city streets, Dare to Dance in Public Film Festival is about using film to share the power of dance as a life force that connects us as people, transcending race, religion, ethnicity, culture, language, and socio-economic backgrounds.
