MindLeaps in collaboration with Children of Promise

MindLeaps seeks Dance & Movement Instructors to work with children ages 8 - 9 years old, for a Summer Program July 11 through August 19, 2022.

Male-Identifying instructors are strongly encouraged to apply.

BIPOC instructors are strongly encouraged to apply.

Classes are Mon, Tues, Wed from 1pm until 4:30pm in the Bronx and Brooklyn working with children affected by parental incarceration.

If available, please email resume and inquiry email to jesse@mindleaps.org

MindLeaps seeks instructors in NYC with backgrounds in education, dance, movement or sports.

The instructors should have experience working with children.

The instructors will work on a team of certified MindLeaps trainers to support the social-emotional learning of children from under-resourced communities in New York City.

These are paid positions with paid on-the-job training.

The instructors will co-teach the fun, aerobic MindLeaps curriculum consisting of a 45 minute warm-up, across-the-floor/diagonal, and choreography inserts. The instructors will have the opportunity to design and teach simple to advanced physical routines/inserts.

For more information, please email USA Program Director, Jesse Hawkes at jesse@mindleaps.org

More About MindLeaps:

The MindLeaps curriculum harnesses the kinesthetic power of dance and movement to support 7 key social emotional and cognitive skills.

MindLeaps has long-term programs running in Rwanda, Guinea, Uganda, Mauritania, and North Macedonia. In 2022, MindLeaps is running pilot programs in the U.S., starting in New York City. On average, MindLeaps children achieve significant improvement across all seven skills in 12 weeks of the MindLeaps dance program, with long-term benefits: e.g. 66% of MindLeaps' children perform in the top 20% of their academic classes.
