Ice Theatre of New York (ITNY) presents its 2022 Home Season Performances on May 6 & May 7, at 7PM, and May 9 at 6:30PM at the Sky Rink, Chelsea Piers. Volunteers get to see the show for free.

The annual Benefit Gala and Performance will celebrate the 35th Anniversary of ITNY on the third night of the Home Season, May 9, 2022. The gala performance is part of the three-night Home Season, which will feature the ITNY Ensemble, Junior Ensemble, and guest artists.

This year's gala will honor Olympic ice dance champions Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean. ITNY's 2022 Home Season will feature the ITNY Ensemble in new works alongside pieces from the repertory. Jody Sperling, the first and only choreographer on a Coast Guard Icebreaker observing the melting of Arctic sea ice in 2018 has once again received a NYSCA grant through ITNY to create her second socially engaged commissioned work for Ice Theatre of New York with a soundtrack by Paul D. Miller (DJ Spooky).
