POSITION OVERVIEW

Faye Driscoll seeks a part-time Communications and Development Associate to manage digital communications and support government, foundation, corporate, and individual fundraising. The position will be responsible for managing and creating content for regular email and social media marketing, and supporting development through grant writing, research, and donor communications. The successful candidate will have excellent written and verbal communications skills, experience creating and managing social media and email campaigns, and a passion for dance and contemporary performance. The ideal candidate understands the complexity and distinction of Driscoll's highly original body of work, and is familiar with the landscape of contemporary dance and performance globally. The Development and Communications Associate will be a creative thinker, detail-oriented, motivated, have strong organizational and project management skills, and serve as a vital support in the achievement of both short-term and long-term visions for sustainable growth within the company.

ABOUT FAYE DRISCOLL

Faye Driscoll is a Doris Duke Award-winning performance maker who has been hailed as a "startlingly original talent" by The New York Times and "a postmillennium postmodern wild woman" by The Village Voice. She is currently the Randjelovic/Stryker Resident Commissioned Artist at New York Live Arts, and is the recipient of a Guggenheim fellowship, a Bessie award and the Jacob's Pillow Artist Award among many others. Her work has been presented at Wexner Center for the Arts, Walker Art Center, ICA/Boston, MCA Chicago and BAM, and internationally at Kunstenfestivaldesarts, La Biennale di Venezia, Festival d'Automne à Paris, Melbourne Festival, Belfast International Arts Festival, Onassis Cultural Centre in Athens and Centro de Arte Experimental in Buenos Aires.

Her most recent performance, Space, was the final live work in her Thank You for Coming trilogy. Space is a moving requiem on art, the body, loss and human connectivity, and was celebrated as "an exhilaratingly personal culmination of the series" by Artforum. In 2020, her first-ever solo exhibition, Come On In, opened at Walker Art Center, offering gallery-goers an experience of six distinct audio-guided experiences from my series Guided Choreography for the Living and the Dead. Faye also choreographs for plays and films, including the Broadway production of Young Jean Lee's Straight White Men, and Josephine Decker's award-winning feature films Madeline's Madeline and The Sky is Everywhere.
