Seeking dancers with diverse training in Modern, Contemporary, African, and or African Caribbean dance and performance experience for an upcoming performance project based on storytelling and spirited traditions of the African Diaspora in December of 2022. The ideal artist will be able to cooperate with the artistic team, commit to weekly rehearsal schedule leading up to the performance, and be able to pick up and retain choreography efficiently. Compensation includes rehearsal stipend and performance pay. There will also be the opportunity for additional engagements beyond this performance event. Please send headshot, resume, and dance reel demonstrating your dance and performance experience to f.logan@vashtidancetheater.com
