Description

About the Position

The ideal candidate possesses a passion for education, diversity, equity and inclusion, has a background in dance and theater, and is comfortable working in a fast-paced environment. Candidate is fully dedicated to the mission of Brooklyn Prospect, and committed to keeping the academic and personal success of our students as a core focus, while striving to grow professionally and support the operational excellence of the school. This position reports to the Arts Department Head and will work closely with senior members of faculty, teach and/or co-teach 4 sections of academic courses, lead an advisory, as well as other related duties.

This candidate will be responsible for teaching 10th Grade Dance, IB Dance Year 2, and Cosmetology and Design. Dance instructors teach a variety of dance styles and techniques to students from beginner to advanced level and are responsible for creating appropriately challenging choreography, collaborating with the other dance teachers on curricular alignment, and directing the spring dance showcase. Cosmetology and Design is a 9/10th Grade semester-based course and a prerequisite for IB Visual Arts and IB Theater. This teacher will be responsible for developing a curriculum that encompasses elements of Visual Art and Theater that results in a final culminating project. The candidate will collaborate with the Visual and Performing Arts teachers and the Arts Department Head to create and execute this curriculum.
