Borne Dance is hosting our annual eating disorder awareness show on March 4 at the Latea Theater at 7:00 pm. We are currently looking for guests artists to donate their art to this cause and to help celebrate body positivity with us! Artists of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply including musicians, spoken word artists, comedians, and dancers. For dance pieces we are looking for pieces of two or more dancers between 3-6 minutes. Pieces based off mental health, body positivity, self acceptance, personal growth etc, are encouraged to apply. To apply please email Bornedancenyc@gmail.com with your name, email, a statement of why your piece fits our theme, and a video of proposed work. Videos can be a rehearsal video or work in progress. Please email us with any questions you may have. Applications are due Feb 18.
