This is an audition for Stitching Cohesion, a new dance work premiering in Spring 2025 based on collective improvisation across private and public spaces. The audition will last for two hours. Dancers should come prepared to move, get dirty, and stay warm.

If selected, dancers will be expected to attend at least 2 rehearsals per month from May 2023 - May 2025. There will be 3-6 rehearsals offered per month on varying days and times, structured so that every dancer can attend at least two rehearsals. All of the rehearsals will be announced one month ahead of time. This is an unpaid opportunity. Tickets will be sold for the performances and all dancers will receive a share of the profits.
