About Nimbus:

Nimbus Dance is an award-winning contemporary dance company at the forefront of excellence in the arts, civic engagement, and equitable impact, interweaving Company, School, and Presentations. Founded in 2005 by Artistic Director Samuel Pott and based in Jersey City, Nimbus performs on tour nationally and throughout the greater New Jersey/New York region, impacting 16,000 people annually. The company premieres new work on an annual basis by Samuel Pott and by diverse commissioned choreographers, and maintains an active partnership with the New Jersey Symphony, and many other collaborating artists, composers, and organizations. Nimbus' community engagement initiatives serve over 7,000 children annually through in-school, movement-based programs. Nimbus presents and produces the annual Acadia Dance Festival at the Criterion Theater in Bar Harbor, Maine. In September 2020, Nimbus opened the Nimbus Arts Center, a 14,900 square-foot center with theater, gallery, and studio spaces that is the largest dance-based arts center in the State of New Jersey.

Aligning with Nimbus' mission to wield the arts as a medium for broad impact to our diverse community, the new Center provides a home base for Nimbus Dance as it expands its national profile and impact.

About Nimbus2:

Consisting of 6 young dance professionals, Nimbus2 performs repertory for young and adult audiences, expanding the reach of dance to populations across the tri-state area. Developing a new generation of Nimbus artists within Nimbus' aesthetic, repertory, and approach, Nimbus2 provides a rigorous and inspiring environment for dancers to grow. Nimbus2 season includes performances including their own repertory, performances with Nimbus Dance, including Jersey City Nutcracker, and state-wide community engagement.
