Base is excited to announce a national open call for artists to apply to the 2023-2024 Base Residency Program, a two-week immersive residency experience in Seattle, WA. Through a panel led by community curators Nia-Amina Minor, Bennyroyce Royon, and Parmida Ziaei, five artists or collectives will receive a two-week residency between February 2024 – July 2024 along with an unrestricted stipend of $2,000.

The 2023-2024 Base Residency Program is intended to support artists engaged in experimental or risk-taking work that incorporates multiple disciplines, but must primarily be movement-based. The curators encourage artists to expand on existing or new ideas and take time to deepen their artistic practice or creative work.

Learn more about the Base Residency program and apply here. Applications are due by October 29, 2023 at 11PM EST.
