About "XY"

"XY" is a profound exploration of human self-awareness. This mesmerizing work invites the audience to embark on a journey of self-discovery and introspection. As the dancers take the stage, they unravel the complexities of our existence within a world steeped in duality, allowing viewers to ponder their own place within this intricate tapestry. Drawing inspiration from the evocative verses of Anne Sexton and Paul Laurence Dunbar, "XY" emerges as a choreographic masterpiece that encourages you to traverse the realms of discovery and reflection. With every graceful movement and poignant expression, this dance work beckons you to reimagine the profound relationship between dance and the essence of human philosophy. Join us on this captivating journey, where art, movement, and introspection converge to create a truly transformative experience.
