Are you interested in the arts, dance, and activism? Do you feel passionate about climate justice and community engagement? This internship may be for you!

Artichoke Dance Company is a national leader in eco-arts performance and climate action. Based in New York City, we are known for innovative and engaging performances paired with environmental activism, education, community building and civic engagement. Artichoke was founded in 1995 and has held 21 New York seasons and toured nationally and internationally.

INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION:

This internship is the perfect opportunity for college-aged and recently graduated students to gain experience in marketing, development, grant-writing, and/or arts administration for a small dance and eco-arts company. The Spring Intern will support the company in the organization and execution of our Artichoke Ambassadors program and an immersive performance tour in Brooklyn that highlights social and climate issues relevant to the community. Interns have the flexibility to design their internship experience according to their own interests and areas they wish to gain more experience in.

This internship can be done remotely and interns design their own schedules. This internship requires a minimum commitment of 3-7 hours per week for a minimum three month period. This is an unpaid opportunity, however interns can participate in the Spring Module of Artichoke Ambassador's training for free (read more about the program here).

TO APPLY:

Interested candidates should email a resume and brief paragraph that details your interest in this internship with Artichoke Dance Company. Send your materials to Lindsey Jennings at artichokedancecompany@gmail.com with the Subject Line: "Internship Application" by February 29th, 2024.
