Fast paced talent management company seeks an enthusiastic full-time CHOREOGRAPHY AGENT for immediate start. We represent talent in the world of acting, directing, writing, and choreography for Broadway, film and television. Additionally, we are developing and producing original material for theatre, film and television recently represented by the hit musical COME FROM AWAY, as well as producing the Museum of Broadway in New York City. Candidate MUST have 3-5 years experience as a choreography agent and a strong knowledge of players in the entertainment industry. Candidates without adequate experience and a solid knowledge of producers, theatres, the dance world, agencies, and creatives NEED NOT APPLY. Discretion and confidentiality are essential attributes in a viable candidate. Salary is negotiable and based on experience.
