ScreenDance Road Show (formerly the Motion State Dance Films Series) is the only year-long, traveling short screendance festival in New England devoted to showcasing the diversity of contemporary creative voices exploring the medium of choreography for the camera.

By taking the festival "on the road" and into non-traditional film venues, such as art galleries, music halls, libraries, and university classrooms, Motion State Arts seeks to expose new audiences to this fabulous, ever-evolving art form.

Every screening is followed by a public Q & A with the curators. All festival artists are invited and encouraged to take part in the conversation, should they find themselves in the area of any given screening.
