SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

ARTIST SCHOLARSHIP: There are two scholarships for artists who identify as Black, Indigenous, Asian, Pacific Islander, Hispanic, Latino/a/x, Immigrant, and/or Trans available for this intensive. These scholarships come with a few responsibilities to support the intensive before, during, and after the program dates, including opening and closing the studio and taking photos and videos for social media and archival content.

WORK STUDY SCHOLARSHIP: Two full work study scholarships will be awarded. This opportunity is designed for students with an interest in arts administration/marketing/social media. It will include on-site responsibilities and will include administrative work before and after the intensive.

All scholarship applicants, please be prepared to share a Vimeo or YouTube link to a 2-minute video reel that best represents you and the works you've been a part of as a dance artist. Please also be prepared to upload a letter of motivation (1 page, PDF only) answering the following questions: (1) Please explain clearly why you are in need of a scholarship? (2) What is your character and work ethic? (3) How could this particular workshop hosted by NVA & Guests and teaching artists involved serve your future aspirations as a dancer/artist? (See here for tips on how to best write a motivational letter).

The scholarship application can be found at the end of the registration form. See HERE.

Scholarship/Work Study Application Deadline: July 14th at 5 PM ET

!!NEW!! >>> PRO RATE

We are thrilled to introduce our NEW Pro Rate discount, offering 40% off on all our tuition and drop-in classes! This special rate is designed to support professional dance performers in their training for auditions and performance jobs. Please remember to complete the application form and await your confirmation email before booking.
