Jersey City Ballet Theater, a nonprofit performing arts organization in Jersey City, NJ, is seeking two male dancers with strong classical technique.

The casting is for the role of the Wolf and the role of the Hunter in our production of Peter and the Wolf with the Garden State Philharmonic. There will also be a repertory piece featuring classical ballet and contemporary ballet-style material.

Rehearsals are on Saturdays at 2 PM, adding Sundays as we get closer to production.

Interested dancers should send a resume and a brief statement of interest and availability.

We will reply with compensation information and additional rehearsal times.

Peter and the Wolf, two performances on October 26.

This is nonunion project work as we continue to create work for grant opportunities.

Apprentice opportunities are available for male and female dancers.

All Rehearsals are in down town Jersey City convenient to PATH and NJ Transit Bus services.

Any questions are welcomed.
