A side hustle designed to move your career forward.

Worthwhile was founded by a group of actors who wanted a way to pay their bills—without sacrificing the freedom to attend any audition that popped up.

We're now a network of over a hundred actors, musicians, and students who work events as a means to an end. People pick up shifts that fit their schedule, and help each other find coverage whenever a potentially career-changing conflict pops up.

Need a job in NYC or New Haven that pays great AND has flexibility?

The Worthwhile promise is that you'll never miss an audition, callback, or paid acting work because of your job with us. You'll pick up shifts only on the days you feel like working, and you can call out for auditions up to the minute before your shift starts.

We understand that you're busy, so we'll keep this short. Below is our pay scale, and a link to the application page on our website with more info on the job. Please apply on the website and not via email!
