UNCSA SUMMER DANCE

The Choreographic Institute at UNCSA is a two-week residency that supports emerging choreographers of exceptional promise as they develop new work. Through this initiative, the School of Dance deepens its mission to create original works while nurturing the careers of talented choreographers. This immersive residency provides a unique opportunity for choreographers to expand their artistic voice, refine their craft, and receive invaluable mentorship in a collaborative, process-driven environment.

Choreographers will engage in:

Studio Work sessions focused on creative exploration
Workshops and Artist Talks led by industry leaders
Mentoring Sessions with esteemed mentors

Afternoons are dedicated to rehearsals with dancers from the DANCE | CONNECTION NOW Intensive (ages 15–20). Choreographers will also have evening access to studios for further research and development of their work.

In addition, participants will take part in seminars covering essential aspects of the profession, including:

- Choreography as a Business
- Digital Representation
- Finding Your Voice
- Grant Writing Seminars

Throughout the residency, choreographers will be mentored by:

Juel D. Lane, Director of the Choreographic Institute and UNCSA alumnus
Trish Casey, UNCSA School of Dance faculty member and alumna
Maleek Washington, Guest Choreography Fellow

Performance

The residency culminates in a professionally produced dance concert, showcasing the choreographers' work alongside performances by DANCE | CONNECTION NOW.
