Call for submissions from Queens-based dance groups and choreographers for the 2025 Queensboro Dance Festival (QDF). The Queensboro Dance Festival is a summer (June-Sept) tour of performances and classes by Queens-based dances of diverse cultures & styles. QDF brings programming to Queens indoor and outdoor public venues.

QDF participants receive paid artist fees, paid teaching opportunities, complimentary photo and video footage, access to free and discounted rehearsal spaces in Queens, free professional development workshops, and a direct network of Queens arts and culture resources and community.

- Choreographer or company must be a resident in Queens with a Queens resident postal address (PO BOX not accepted). Dance schools with professional companies welcome. Pre-professional students may perform if included on stage with their professional company members. Please note performance slot priority is given to professional-level groups. See FAQs for other ways dance schools can participate in the festival

DEADLINE TO APPLY: March 10, 2025
