More about RE/VENUE and Mark Morris Dance Center

RE/VENUE NYC? is a project to revitalize New York City's strained performing arts industry. By building partnerships with venues and artists through short-term pop-up performance series, RE/VENUE NYC provides artists with free space to produce and perform their work while simultaneously bringing new audiences to venues. This collaborative approach strengthens both the artistic community and venue ecosystem while expanding New York audiences for live performance.

The Mark Morris Dance Center is a cultural hub for the Brooklyn community, offering dance classes for all ages and abilities and subsidized rehearsal and performance space to NYC-based dance artists and companies.
