

Friday, January 2, 2026

Dance Parade is Seeking Teaching Artists!

Company: Dance Parade

Compensation: $75-$100 per teaching hour (depending on experience)

► Share | Print | Download

Dance Parade is seeking qualified teaching artists to join our team and to contribute to our mission.

Dance Parade's Community Engagement Programs offer participants of all ages - in schools, recreation facilities, senior centers and at public events - opportunities to discover their own innate capacity for the communication of ideas, thoughts, and feelings through the medium of dance. Our programs provide a curriculum where students can learn about the world culture and history of a particular dance genre, learn techniques and choreography, and perform dances for their community and in the annual Dance Parade & Festival in New York City. School programs that culminate with the Annual Dance Parade & Festival are offered from February to May.

Desired Qualifications:

- Experience teaching youth (NYC DOE experience is a plus but not required)
- Classroom management skills
- Reliable and professional
- Dance background and choreographic experience
- Eligible to work legally as an independent contractor
- Experience working with older adults (applicable for our Ageless Action programs)
- Availability and a willingness to facilitate class participation in the Dance Parade & Festival on Saturday, May 16th, 2026

2026 program placement is based on schedule availability and demand.

Season: February-May

To apply, please fill out our CE Inquiry Form linked here: <https://danceparade.org/ce-inquiry-form/>

Qualified teaching artists will be invited for a phone interview, and if selected, must attend an online training either January 22nd or 23rd, 2026 6-8pm.

Dance Parade
<https://danceparade.org/>

For more information:
Heidi Ford
heidi@danceparade.org

< back

previous listing • next listing