The Paul Taylor Dance Company returns to the David H. Koch Theater November 4-23, 2025, with World Premieres by Resident Choreographers Lauren Lovette and Robert Battle, and the New York Premiere of Hope Boykin's How Love Sounds. The soundscape is as bold as the dancing – from jazz icons Ella Fitzgerald, Wylye Gordon, and Mahalia Jackson, to the orchestral sweep of Antonín Dvořák and John Adams, to pop classics by Patsy Cline, Stevie Wonder, Billy Joel, and Donna Summer. Alongside Taylor favorites Esplanade and Company B, the repertory features treasures including Speaking in Tongues, the Whitman-inspired Beloved Renegade, Offenbach Overtures, Scudorama, Troilus and Cressida (reduced), and Concertiana, Taylor's final dance. Select performances feature live music performed by the Orchestra of St. Luke's. Tickets start at $10 at boxoffice.dance.
