

September, 16-26, 2015

4th Annual Queer New York International Arts Festival

Company: September 16-26

Venue: Abrons Art Center

Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

John Moletress, Photo: Generacion Ascere

Curated and produced by Zvonimir Dobrovic (artistic director, Queer Zagreb and Perforations festivals, Croatia), QNYIA presents contemporary performance and visual art that broadens the traditional concepts of queer (in) art. The 2015 Festival will feature a diverse slate of performances by international artists, presented in partnership with Abrons Arts Center, the Festival hub, with additional performances in Central Park, at the Merton D. Simpson Gallery, and at Dixon Place.

The 2015 lineup includes: Annie Sprinkle and Beth Stephens (U.S.), Ivo Dimchev (Bulgaria), Mmakgosi Kgabi (South Africa), Joshua Monten (Switzerland/U.S.), Mehdi-Georges Lahlou (Morocco/France), Bruno Isakovic (Croatia), John Moletress (U.S.), Max Steele (U.S.), Kaia Gilje and Lorene Bouboushian (U.S.), and Michael Breslin (U.S.)

For the full schedule, visit www.queerny.org.

September 16-26
466 Grand Street (at Pitt Street)
New York, NY, 10002
212-598-0400
<http://www.queerny.org/>

Schedule
September 16, 2015: 3:00pm, 8:00pm
September 17, 2015: 8:00pm
September 18, 2015: 8:00pm, 9:00pm
more

< back

previous listing • next listing