Train with GroundWorks in a creative and highly collaborative environment, similar to our own artistic process. The contemporary dance intensive will be held at Cleveland State University's Department of Theatre and Dance studios in Cleveland, Ohio. Classes in contemporary, ballet, repertoire, creative process, dance pedagogy, and more will be taught by our Artistic Director, Education Director, and/or Company Artists. There will also be an informal showing on the last day of the intensive to showcase some of the work created by and set on participants. The intensive is open to pre-professional and professional dancers ages 18+.
