"95 POEMS" examines the works of ee cummings as a world determined by the ideals in his work. Theater and dance merge to examine whether cummings's ideals of nature, patriotism, and religion are still relevant in a plastic-choked, bitterly divided 21st century United States.

Though tickets are free, a suggested donation of $20 is encouraged to help support the performers and the work. Tax-deductible donations can be made here: <https://fundraising.fracturedatlas.org/tedted-performance-group>

Performances will take place October 22, 23rd, and 24th at The Hall Brooklyn (47 Hall Street, Brooklyn) lasting an hour and a half.

Proof of Vaccination required at door for audience entry.

About tedted Performance Group:

tedted Performance Group is a group of artists of different backgrounds who believe in creating work that defies definition. Since its inception in 2015, tedted Performance Group has rapidly carved out a unique space in the heavily saturated landscape of performance in New York City. With an emphasis on experimentation, the group has presented groundbreaking work in unusual spaces; from riverbanks to living rooms and warehouses to the occasional stage. The Boston Globe called their performance at the Huntington Theater eye popping. The aim of all their work is to stir conversations among audiences in order to help bring people together into a truly global community.
