Presented by Department of Drama, Theatre & Dance at Queens College. In William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, lovers' lives are complicated by city law, feuding fairy royalty, and... love. The quarreling King and Queen of the forest meddle with four runaway lovers and a troupe of actors rehearsing a play. Chaos ensues, love triangles abound, and transformations take hold... with hilarious, but dark consequences. Grab a friend or a lover, buckle up, and join us for a trip to The Forest.
