

FOR AUDIENCES

Community Calendar | Volunteering

March, 30-31, 2023

AAPI Heroes: Myths and Legends

Company: J Chen Project

Venue: Museum of Chinese in America (MOCA)

Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Julie Lemberger

An immersive evening of dance that reimagines the past, present, and future through an Asian American cultural lens. Take a journey through the spaces of the Museum of Chinese in America and explore different worlds filled with AAPI stories of strength, resilience, and resistance in the face of ongoing challenges and discrimination. AAPI HEROES aims to educate, raise awareness, and inspire audiences to stand in solidarity and take action to address and combat these issues while also honoring the rich fruits of AAPI history.

The evening will include new works inspired by two iconic Asian American figures who have significantly impacted American culture and society: Bruce Lee and Anna May Wong. The performances will pay tribute to the enduring influence of Bruce Lee's martial arts and philosophy, and the trailblazing career of Anna May Wong, the first Chinese American Hollywood movie star.

J Chen Project
215 Centre Street
New York, NY, 10013
877-849-5327

<https://jchenproject.ticketleap.com/aapi-heroes-myths-and-legends>

Schedule

March 30, 2023: 6:30pm, 8:30pm

March 31, 2023: 6:30pm, 8:30pm

< back

previous listing • next listing