JAMES CRICKET COLMAN

CALLING ALL DANCERS, WRITERS, ACTORS AND VISUAL ARTISTS!

In NYC's vibrant and competitive arts scene, finding a true beginner dance class can be a challenge. The ASTC Dance Method Workshop offers a rare and inspiring opportunity designed not just for dancers, but also for actors, writers, and visual artists. This is a space where you can explore movement and storytelling in a single, integrated experience, no matter your artistic background.

What Makes This Workshop Unique:

- For All Creatives: Whether you're a dancer, actor, writer, or visual artist, this workshop helps you unlock your creative potential through movement. It's about bringing your artistic vision to life, using your body as the medium.
- True Beginner Level: Start from the very basics with professional training that's accessible yet challenging—perfect for those serious about growing their craft.
- Storytelling & Expression: Enhance your ability to tell compelling stories through movement, drawing on techniques from various artistic disciplines to create powerful, emotionally resonant performances.

Our September session sold out quickly. Don't miss your chance to be part of the October series—only 10 spots are available, so secure your place by September 27th.
