

June, 26-27, 2024

AVID- ART that MOVES Inaugural Performance

Company: AVIDance
Venue: The Theater at St. Jeans
Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Quinn Wharton

Artistic Ventures in Dance

ART that MOVES

This program features:

Commissioned works by Quinn Wharton & Ursula Verduzco as well as a brand new score by composer Anne-Marie Keane. To honor the legacy of classical dance, AVID will present Gerald Arpino's Italian Suite staged by Valerie Madonia. Choreographer Daniel Ojeda will stage his acclaimed work Persona with support from the Alexa Rose Foundation. Additional works by Emily Speed, Jack Wolff & an original composition by Asher Komor will also be presented. Live music will accompany the dancers on stage for several pieces, featuring Molly Aronson, Laura Manko Sahin, and Taisiya Pushkar of Ensemble Mycelium.

Tickets are available through our website:

<https://www.avidance.org/events>

AVID's is to honor the tradition of classical dance and continue to move it forward by bringing together world class artists in an environment that utilizes collaboration to cultivate expression, authenticity, and growth for all. AVID strives to create an artistic experience that awakens the senses and promotes emotional vulnerability by building community through art.

AVIDance
150 East 76th Street
New York, NY, 10021
<https://avid.ticketspice.com/avid-inaugural-season-performance>

Schedule
June 26, 2024: 7:30pm
June 27, 2024: 7:30pm

< back

previous listing • next listing