EVENT DESCRIPTION

Back by popular demand, this supportive, upbeat introductory training is for dance lovers, anyone involved in the live arts, and anyone who cares about the future of the field: dancers, choreographers, curators, funders, critics, educators, activists, students, audience members, nonprofit professionals, and Board members. The training will be a comprehensive presentation of fundamental concepts and approaches. The training will also offer time for dialogue and processing in small groups. This training is a repeat of the event hosted by HMD in October 2020.

This is an online event taking place on Zoom. You will receive a Zoom link via email one day prior to the event.
