Ilene Isseks

Featuring new dance and dance/theater works with projected imagery, adding new layers to series' of original paintings by visual artists Ilene Isseks and Susan Ruth Cohen. Featured is the premiere of "Subway Windows," a work in which groups of diverse subway riders engage in the NY ritual of ignoring each other. As they bide their time on the train, we get glimpses into each riders' psyche, thoughts and dreams. The piece is a collaboration with the visual artist as well as the 8 dancer/choreographers. The concert will also feature dance pieces inspired by classic rock and folk-rock songs sung live by Farah Chandu and Willow Women's Choir and Rose Gunter. With 11 diverse company dancers.

This program is made possible with funds from the Statewide Community Regrant Program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature and administered by The Huntington Arts Council, Inc.
