Under the artistic direction of Emily Molnar, Ballet BC deftly pushes the boundaries of contemporary dance with intelligence, passion, and artistry. For its first appearance at The Joyce in over 15 years, the company performs a bold and innovative program of work by three internationally acclaimed female choreographers. Emily Molnar's 16+ a room is a study of time, transition, and stillness, where the space between is as important as the space occupied. Sharon Eyal showcases her signature style with the raw, unexpected beauty of Bill. Celebrated choreographer, former Ballet BC company member, and founder of Kidd Pivot, Crystal Pite explores themes of acceptance and loss with Solo Echo.
