BalletNext at New York Live Arts
October 27-November 7, 2015
12 Performances | 5 Works | 3 Premieres

Program A highlights include the premieres of "Don't Blink" the next collaboration from Michele Wiles and flex dancing pioneer Jay Donn and Brian Reeder's "Strange Flowers," a flirtatious trio set to the music of Jean Philipe Rameau, as well as the return of "Ushuaia" by Michele Wiles. As with all BalletNext performances the music will be played live.

Program B will feature the world premiere of Michele Wiles's "Apogee in 3" set to a jazz score by master trumpet player/composer Tom Harrell, who will join us with his quintet. Also on the boards is "Surmisable Units," for six dancers, two pianos, and one pianist, also by Reeder.

Performances are Tuesday-Friday at 7:30pm and Saturday at 2:00 & 7:30pm.
