CALLING ALL THE YOUNG ARTISTS!

Here is an exciting way to spend your Saturday mornings.

Acting + Dancing is a great way to exercise and nurture your creative mind forever. This workshop offers the opportunity to explore, engage in self-expression and gain confidence on stage all while having so much fun. Plus if you bring your sibling ya'll get a discount! Woohoo!! It is BILINGUAL but knowledge of Spanish is not required. It will conclude with a performance for family and friends.

Children ages 7-13 are encouraged to sign up. Special discounts will be given to families with more than child enrolled. The workshop offers little ones the opportunity to explore, engage in self-expression and gain confidence on stage all while having so much fun!

The teacher, Yloy Ybarra, was trained in Spain, Texas and New York. His dance background is extensive in flamenco, ballet, jazz, modern and ethnic dance. His performing and teaching credits include Andrea Del Conte Danza Espana, Flamenco Vivo Carlota Santana, Maria Benitez, Jose Greco, the Metropolitan Opera, Charo, Flamenco Latino, La Repompa de Malaga, and Sol y Sombra. Yloy is currently the Artistic Director of Danza España, an Award Winning Dance Company presented during Thalia's annual season.

The workshop will conclude with a presentation by the students at Thalia's mainstage. Parents and friends are encourage to attend, free of charge!
