Raphael Xavier & Gary Dourdan

Tuesday, July 14, 2020 | 7 p.m. EDT

Performed in front of the weeping beech near Oak Circle in June 2020.

In this work, Xavier explores the intuitive concept of listening, assessing, and adapting through improvisational street dance. Acoustic sound and movement drawn from environment and experience intertwine to create an ambient performance that reflects on growth and maturity. Dourdan accompanies on flute, guitar, and beats.
