created & performed by choreographer Susan Marshall composer Jason Treuting visual artist Suzanne Bocanegra

Choreographer Susan Marshall, composer Jason Treuting, and visual artist Suzanne Bocanegra come together in CHROMATIC. Inspired by Josef Albers' 1963 masterpiece of color theory Interaction of Color, CHROMATIC generates its energy from collisions of color, sound, action, object and scale. The artists perform this work themselves – constructing and deconstructing, making and remaking.
