Fall Movement is part of a biannual festival presented by CPR, featuring work by local and international emerging and established choreographers. This seasons installment will highlight 6 performance makers. Artists will present works-in-progress, finished pieces, and premieres of dance, theater, or performance, as well as interdisciplinary collaborations with filmmakers, musicians, and visual artists.

Thank you to our panelists, Deborah Conton, Anabella Lenzu, and Rourou Ye for your help in selecting this seasons artists!
