Deborah Hay by Richard Termine

Cathy Weis Projects presents Tess Dworman, Deborah Hay, and Arien Wilkerson on Sunday, November 17, at 6pm, as part of its Fall 2024 Sundays on Broadway series. The fall 2024 series is co-curated by Cathy Weis and Malcolm-x Betts.

Tess Dworman will perform an excerpt from Everything Must Go, an improvisational dance/theater work that emerges from satirical questioning into the consumption of experimental performance. The full work will be presented at the Chocolate Factory Theater in December 2024.

Deborah Hay will perform a solo entitled I am dancing.

Arien Wilkerson will present CHARITY STARTS AT HOME/Nadine Ruff, a work that Wilkerson describes as "A reminder to remain dangerous as an artist. And to take care of yourself."

About Sundays on Broadway

Founded by choreographer and video artist Cathy Weis in spring 2014, the one-night-only events bring together both luminaries and newcomers of downtown performance, creating a space for artists to perform and discuss their work and processes with audiences in the intimate setting of Weis's SoHo studio. Since its inception, Sundays on Broadway has presented the work of more than 170 choreographers, filmmakers, performers, musicians, and visual artists. About the series, Robert Greskovic of The Wall Street Journal writes: "While the atmosphere evokes New York in the 1970s, the artistry on view feels up to the minute."

$5-$20 suggested donation at the door. All donations go to the performers. WeisAcres is located at 537 Broadway, #3 (between Prince and Spring Streets), in Manhattan. For more information about Sundays on Broadway, visit <https://cathyweis.org/weisacres/sundays-on-broadway/>.
