Matthew Westerby Company presents City of Ashes & Other Works

City of Ashes is a new full length contemporary dance work marking the advent of the AIDS crisis in New York City. A multi-disciplinary collaboration with composers David Friend, Bill Solomon and John P. Hastings and lighting designer Mike Riggs, the piece evokes the magnitude of human loss and the strength of a community determined to survive.

The program also features two short new works – The Counterfactual, a work for four women exploring the What If? of our everyday lives, and a new work for MWC2, the Company's 2nd Company of performers.

Presented at the iconic Judson Memorial Church, a historic home for post-modern dance, this program continues its legacy of innovation & community.
