May Meng

I'm a fine art artist/photographer/filmmaker, I would love to create some artistic projects with dancers and will provide full photos and videos as collaboration for dancers to use as there portfolio, and also want to collaborate with dance company, I could help with make some documentary for your company, as an exchange if you would help me create some artistic projects in your studio will be great! I will have an two month solo show coming near grand central next year Jan, so i want to create some new projects. Conceptual and fine art, photography as well as short films.

Please check my website see my works and exhibitions: https://www.mayartfoundation.com/

Please email: chinamaymag@gmail.com with your porfolio and any concepts you would like to create together!

Looking forward to hearing from you all!
