

Saturday, February 3, 2018

Compagnie Hervé KOUBI - Joyce Master Class Series at Gibney Dance

Company: The Joyce Theater

Venue: Gibney Dance: Agnes Varis Performing Arts Center

Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Didier Philispart

Level : Advanced/Intermediate Contemporary Dance Technique (some experience with hip hop, capoeira, or martial arts a plus)

Teacher : Guillaume Gabriel

About the Company:

Compagnie Hervé KOUBI is an all-male French Algerian and Burkina Faso dance company that incorporates hip-hop sensibility into capoeira, martial arts, and contemporary dance.

Biography

Born in the north of France, Guillaume Gabrile graduated from the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce in Marseille, he studied dance at the Rosella Hightower Cannes Dance School. He worked with various choreographers (Bruno Jacquin, Sosana Marcellino, Thierry Smits) and is the co-founder of Compagnie Hervé KOUBI and assists Hervé KOUBI for all his creations, as well as serving as the production and education programs manager for the company.

Class Description

Guillaume Gabriel's class will culminate with phrase material from the Ce Que Le Jour Doit à La Nuit (What Day Owes the Night), an innovative work that affirms multi-culturism. This work incorporates a variety of movement styles including urban and contemporary dance, capoeira, and martial arts. Class will begin with a short warm up, incorporating qualities of movement relevant to this work. Emphasis will be placed on the "plié", the weightedness, fluidity, and amplitude of the movement. Mr. Gabriel will incorporate Compagnie Hervé Koubi's philosophy and approach to dancing, which is that, "Dance is not for me a succession of movements ; I prefer to think of it as a path we walk through."

The Joyce Theater
280 Broadway
New York, NY, 10007
(646) 837-6809
<https://gibneydance.org/explore-classes/workshops/joycemasterclass/>

Schedule
February 3, 2018: 10:00am

< back

previous listing • next listing