This theatrical chamber concert will feature a string quartet Cuartetango, comprised of two violins, a viola and a cello, in addition to the musical instrument, the bandoneon, and dancers. A Q&A with the artists will follow the performance. The event is FREE for the public, but registration is requested by clicking here.

Led by Artistic Director Leonardo Suarez Paz, Cuartetango is one of the only quartets of its kind to perform Nuevo Tango, a musical style that infuses elements of Jazz and Classical music with traditional Tango music, using western classical instruments.

The program is part of PIAZZOLLA 100, a multidisciplinary art project directed by Leonardo and Olga Suarez Paz that's goal is to elevate Nuevo Tango as a contemporary artform across all disciplines.
