DEL Mini-Workshop | November 18 & December 1

Led by DEL Founding Faculty Ann Biddle and assisted by Felice Santorelli, DEL Facilitator.

Experience the joy of playful dance collaboration within a community dedicated to artistry, connection, and creation. Join veteran dance educator and Founding Faculty of the Dance Education Laboratory (DEL) Ann Biddle in a dance making workshop inspired by the work of Pillow Lab artists. Based on the nationally renowned DEL model of dance education, this workshop will introduce participants to principles of collaborative choreography, Laban Movement Analysis as a valuable framework for dance, and processes for examining the work of innovative dance artists as an entry point for choreography.

Time: 10am-4pm

Fees: FREE

For ages 18+, no prior dance experience required. Dancewear is not required; comfortable clothing is suggested.
