DOLLY SFEIR x The Playground NYC

Tuesday, 10/10 || 2:00-3:45PM, $6

Gibney Dance: Agnes Varis Performing Arts Center, 280 Broadway, NYC
Entrance 53A Chambers Street

The Playground NYC allows dancers to experience various choreographic styles and ideas, engage with a new community of dancers, and gather resourceful information and inspiration from the array of choreographers involved. In turn, established choreographers are paid for their creative investigations, are given free space to explore new movement with professional dancers, and are provided with the opportunity to establish relationships with new dancers and fellow choreographers.

Class Description:

The first part of the workshop will be dedicated to Creative Practice. Each bubble of experience has a focus of exploration that nourishes and forges the brain-body connection, inviting participants through doorways of uninterrupted play. It's a practice in curiosity and patience: with our habits, with ideas, with fear.

With a distanced, watchful awareness, we separate the act of practicing from the result, the vessel from the idea, creating access to the wells of experience stored in our being. The goal is to enter a subliminal state, the source of creativity, the curious inner child, while paying attention to the rise of harmful consciousness (judgment, planning, fear, shame) and slowly changing the rate of its occurrence. In the second part of the workshop, we will engage in a choreographic phrase I create that ignites theatrical sensibilities, and challenges our sense of rhythm and musicality.
