NYC choreographers stand up to dance and be counted! Watch original tap, street, swing, and contemporary dances sparked by the critical nature of the 2020 census, and listen in on a conversation about arts and activism, and how the pandemic is shifting these choreographers' approaches to their work. Featuring André Zachary/Renegade Performance Group, Gaby Cook/Wild Rhythm Dance Company, Ephrat Asherie, Leonardo Sandoval, Mike Esperanza/BARE Dance Company, and Preya Patel/Vivarta Arts. Discussion moderated by Melva Miller, CEO of Association for a Better New York.

Co-produced by the Queens Public Library and the CUNY Dance Initiative.
